Precious XPR

Anonymous Dreamer

Once upon a time, a dreamer came to America – the land of Big Dreams. At the time, she didn't speak any English, which was particularly difficult as she was primarily a communicator at heart. She started painting, and, lo and behold, within a few years, her work was in public and private collections. That was a shock. However grateful she was for being the vessel for this uncanny gift, she somehow understood that, unless she got her act in order, none of this beauty would significantly bless the world. She prayed for guidance, and was commissioned to create a giant art project, to be shaped as a global path of awakening, so that anyone who sincerely desired it could come to the end of suffering and the fulfillment of one's potential – in the NOW! How many teachings, years or lifetimes it took to complete the assignment is irrelevant (and likely to be staggering). What matters is that a path arose that painted and wrote itself into being. Known as "Precious XPR," it was infused with the wisdom of Leonardo Da Vinci who stated "One can have no smaller or greater mastery than mastery of oneself." It was also felt and called by "you," as you are reading these words now...

Soulvision

“Vision is the art of seeing what is invisible to others.” Jonathan Swift

Do you wish you could make a difference in healing the planet?

Are you willing to begin by healing yourself?

What part of your life would you like to change?

How would a path that is global assist your transformation?

The purpose of this presentation is to begin to see an answer to these four questions.

The Treasure of XPR

Coming to the core of my shell and finding that I am the one I was looking for: “I was a hidden treasure, and I longed to be known. Hence I created the world so that I would be known.” Ibn 'Arabi, Sufi Mystic and Philosopher

Communication is not what is said and done, but the result of what is said and done. Therefore, I create the WORLD through my WORDS.

- What if there was a form of communication to assist you in transcending the boundaries you see in the world, boundaries that originate from your words?
- What if you could stretch out you hand (a key device of expression), eat from the Tree of Life, and not be afraid to die, i.e.; to transform?
- What if you were handed a map of the land to embody the meaning of ‘and the Word was “God?”’ Would you be willing to walk the territory?

UnderStanding ComPassion

Whether I know it or not, I am an artist using the medium of beliefs to create “my reality.” When the creation comes from the Split Mind, dis-ease follows. The issue, individually or collectively, is the mind that projects its fight, and divides above from below, male from female, spirit from matter, giving from receiving. The first step – maybe the last – is to fully accept my lot and resolve to feel the tension of polar opposites, such as Ignorance vs. Knowledge. To attain such level of surrender, I would need to be sincere in my quest. I would also require a mode of inquiry by which to hear what I am yet to understand. I’d then be able to compassionately feel what I resist, come to Peace, and heal.

Ignorance	Screech	Split Mind	Lost Soul	Pain Body	Broken Heart	Forsaken Spirit
Knowledge	Voice	Mind	Soul	Body	Heart	Spirit

Compassion: from Latin com- “together” + pati “to suffer, to endure.”

Just how easy is it to embrace your suffering, even though suffering is universal?

Consider: walking on a global path of transformation naturally opens me up to compassion.

The Cup of Compassion

QKabbalah means “receptivity.” To receive, I must empty myself of my Belief Systems.

Once upon a Zen time, a philosophy professor went to a Master to ask about God. The professor talked and talked, until the Master said: “Let me first serve you tea. Just by drinking tea your questions may be answered...” The professor was at a loss: how could tea answer questions on theology? The Master brought the kettle, poured tea in the cup and went on pouring. The tea started overflowing into the saucer, but the Master went on pouring. The professor said, “Stop! Don’t you see that the cup is full?” The Master said, “That’s exactly how your mind is: so full of questions that there is no space for an answer to come in. Go back, empty your cup, even break it: when you are no longer, there is no one to stop the whole of existence to flow into you.”

Art: Fifth Cup of Elijah overrunning with the FOUR Passover Questions.

Who am I? Answer that question, and the right and wrong game is over!

Once freed of guilt, I am living interdependently; my mind has No Questions, and my heart, No Answers...

QKosmology	No Answers	What is real?	Where do I go?	What shall I do?	Who am I?	No Questions

The Mission of XPR

“One can have no smaller or greater mastery than mastery of oneself.”

Leonardo Da Vinci

Ignorance	Screech	Split Mind	Lost Soul	Pain Body	Broken Heart	Forsaken Spirit
Knowledge	Voice	Mind	Soul	Body	Heart	Spirit

Mastering a craft can be exhilarating. Yet that ecstasy has a price, as it comes with an agony that must also be included: the greater the ecstasy, the more intense the agony! Leonardo Da Vinci must have experienced that to write the words above: only when I feel the gaping hole that causes me to yearn and be hungry for LOVE, am I free to let creation happen through me.

Consider: the Mission of XPR® is to reveal the inherent order in the chaos of Knowledge. When I perceive that there is a universal path to hearing and seeing the soul of perennial truths, the invisible and the visible merge, the hunger for LOVE is satiated, integrity is naturally embodied, and an aware civilization emerges.

Sacred & Precious XPR

Stage	1	2	3	4	5	6
Ignorance	Screech	Split Mind	Lost Soul	Pain Body	Broken Heart	Forsaken Spirit
Knowledge	Voice	Mind	Soul	Body	Heart	Spirit

A drawing shows me at one glance what might be spread over ten pages in a book. Therefore, besides coming from the “heART” of a soulvision, XPR has the practicality to organize a staggering amount of information by way of “fractals,” the colored lines pictured above. These lines reveal how the word, e.g.; “Ignorance,” was created in SIX Stages. That realization is liberating as it gives me the possibility to emotionally understand any WORD with such totality that my attachments to its limitations are naturally diffused. Now the WORLD (the result of what is said and done) makes sense. Such an integration is radical, as it is traced by Sacred Geometry: the pattern of the Seed Of Life (top left) reorders as the “Genesis pattern.” Once the SIXth sphere is drawn, a seventh appears as the seed. That seed is known biblically as the seventh day, the Hebrew Shabbat for “rest.” It is the consciousness that allows for creation to happen through me, and not by me (ease, not force). I am now “in the zone!”

What if “God” was in fact a geometer?

The Pink Elephant

“And God saw the light, that it was good; and God divided the light from the darkness.”

The pink elephant in the living room of humanity’s consciousness is religion, which is failing its mandate to open the Gate of the Good. When the gate functions, I stop judging and start loving. At last, I take back my projections on family, food, sex and money, as I actively uproot the no good, a.k.a. “evil.”

The Miracle of One Only Thing

“This is a massive and violent schism and rupture in the internal organs of today’s global culture, and this is exactly why many social analysts believe that if some sort of reconciliation between science and religion is not forthcoming, the future of humanity is, at best, precarious.” Ken Wilber, The Marriage of Sense and Soul.

Above	1	2	3	4	5	6
Religion	Scriptures	Good & Evil	Salvation	Laws	Rituals	“God”
Science	Force	Consciousness	Energy-Matter	TOE	Space-Time	Motion
Below	1	6	5	4	3	2

Philosophers of old have spoken of the three gates to the eternal (when I stop being afraid of death): The Gate of the Good, which is opened by Religion; the Gate of the True, which is opened by Science; the Gate of the Beautiful, which is opened by Art. The Beautiful is the Gate of the Miracle of the One only thing – “when that which is below is like that which is above, and that which is above is like that which is below.” This is so as Art bypasses the intellect to plunge me into a heartfelt sense of life, e.g.; how music affects the emotions. That’s how it facilitates the reconciliation of Science and Religion, allowing both to find a reality and a significance to the other.

Science now understands that Matter is condensed Energy. Yet what is Energy if not condensed Forces, made visible as the expression of Consciousness?

Note: for more on what Science says consciousness does, see quote on P26.

Precious Fractal – Part I

“Silence is golden.” Anonymous

Ignorance	Screech	Split Mind	Lost Soul	Pain Body	Broken Heart	Forsaken Spirit
Double-Dealing	Gold & God	Body & Doer	GReed & GRace	Gelt & Guilt	Scared & Sacred	Cure & Poison
Precious	Geometry	Enlightenment	Give/Receive	Release	Song of LOVE	Twinhood

Since everything in the Universe is geometric, whether it is people, animals, planets, solar systems, stars, etc., the books of XPR are designed geometrically, as per the golden proportion of the nautilus shell on the cover page. Created as the Seed of Life above, Precious XPR has SIX articulations, which center in the 7th “day” of “double-dealing” (when I use language as a substitute to feeling) and “Precious” (when I mean what I say, and say what I mean):

1. Where my obsessive quest for Gold shows in the Screech of my Voice, let me quiet myself by way of Geometry (literally, the “measure of the Earth.”).
2. Where my Split Mind convinces me that I am at risk as the Body or the Doer of my actions, let me bring light to my Belief System (my BS).
3. Where my Soul is Lost to GReed – the Giving/Receiving of FEAR, let me see that letters “GR” also initialize “GRace” as the Giving/Receiving of LOVE.

Precious Fractal – Part II

“Speech is silver.” Anonymous

Ignorance	Screech	Split Mind	Lost Soul	Pain Body	Broken Heart	Forsaken Spirit
Double-Dealing	Gold & God	Body & Doer	GReed & GRace	Gelt & Guilt	Scared & Sacred	Cure & Poison
Precious	Geometry	Enlightenment	Give/Receive	Release	Song of LOVE	Twinhood

I ask myself: why do I tend to get lost in my words, and allow myself to be intoxicated by my own verbosity? If silence is golden, speech is certainly silver: I speak as a way to “Double-Deal” me! It is as if there is a Power masterminding me into the belief that, first and foremost, I live in “Scare City.” Therefore, I must be aggressively in charge of my survival and get “them” before they get me! I have found that perception to be painful; extremely so!

4. Where my Body searches for more Gelt ($$) out of telling the story of needing safety, comfort and pleasure, let me find Release from the Pain of ensuing Guilt.
5. Where my Heart is Broken out of being Scared to face “God,” let me hear that Torah (the Five Books of Moses in Hebrew) also means the “Song of LOVE.”
6. Where my Spirit is Forsaken out of not realizing that the Cure is the Poison, let the duality of the Split Mind reform as the pairing of twins (Twinhood).

To be explored one “day,” image and step at a time!

Gold & the Anunnaki

“And there we saw the Nephilim, the sons of Anak, who come of the Nephilim; and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight.” Numbers 13:33

Double-Dealing	Gold & God	Body & Doer	GReed & GRace	Gelt & Guilt	Scared & Sacred	Cure & Poison

Author Zechariah Sitchin is well-known for crediting the birth of the ancient Sumerian culture to the Anunnaki, aeronaut gods coming from Nibiru, a planet beyond Neptune. Translated into more than 25 languages, his work has been dismissed by academics as pseudoscience and pseudohistory. The technologically advanced extraterrestrial race was known as the Anunnaki in the Sumerian myth, and as the Nephilim (“the fallen ones”) in the Bible. Across cultures, aeronaut gods are described to have come to Earth. They were looking for minerals, especially Gold, which they found in Africa. Yet the gods eventually mutinied over their dissatisfaction with their working conditions. Enki, one of the chief gods, suggested to create primitive workers (Homo Sapiens) as slaves to replace them in the gold mines.

Consider: while it is difficult to accept that an ancient civilization had such scientific knowledge that they could space-travel and biologically engineer another race, science is still unable to explain the kind of Power that could build, e.g.; the pyramids of Egypt.

Geometry & the Anunnaki

Each sign of the Hebrew alphabet has many dimensions, starting with being a number. The five Hebrew letters (אנכי) write the word V'Anokhi. Anokhi (“I”) is the very word that begins the First Commandment – “I am the LORD your God who took you out of Land of Egypt and the House of Slavery.” The 87 value of V'Anokhi is the same as Avodah for “slave” to the other – to duality (#2). Avodah V'Anokhi for “slave and I” are the 2 sides of the same coin, when the Anunnaki/Anokhi “gods” greedily searched for gold, and engineered a race of slaves to mine more metal.

How can you make THE Decision to strive for Self-Knowledge unless you live under the illusion that you are in bondage to the other? When released, are you not God-like?

Body & the Doer

“If the mind remains in the Heart, the ‘I’ or the ego which is the source of all thoughts will go, and the Self, the Real, Eternal ‘I’ alone will shine. Where there is not the slightest trace of the ego, there is the Self.”

Sri Ramana Maharshi, Be Who You Are.

What is enlightenment? It is simply to stop identifying with the thought that I am the body and/or the doer. Then ‘I’ easily forgive myself, as I can see and hear that there are no accidents. That may be how Sanskrit Namasté for “the divine in me salutes the divine in you” sounds as “no mistakes.” There is so much Peace in the recognition that there are “no accidents.” It is the rest of the 7th day – the Shabbat – when I know that creativity happens through me and not by me. Of all the thoughts that arise in the mind, the ‘I’ thought is the first, e.g.; “I” shouldn’t have... How to surrender such self-imposed torture (and thus find release from being enslaved to this form of suffering) is by way of inquiring until the question itself disappears entirely.

What will it take for you to ask and answer the only question there is:
Who is Anokhi, meaning, who am “I?”

$igns & Codes

“Eternal nothingness is fine if you happen to be dressed for it.” Woody Allen

Money in particular enforces the “I am the doer” thought: whether I lose or make a buck, there is an “I” that becomes a fixed identity, e.g.; a trader when in grace, and a thief when in greed. That identity is inscribed in sign K (כ) of Anokhi (אֲנֹכִי): where English would say K as “Kilo,” Hebrew says Kaph as in “K.” Hebrew signs are also words: Kaph means “palm of the hand, coercion.” When in fear, I am compelled to insure that the body is nourished, safe, warm and clothed. That takes $$$! Take Kaph out of Anokhi, and what’s left are words Ain and Ani (אֲנִי). The former is the “nothing” that will eventually absorb the latter as the “I,” fixated by Kaph.

Can you at once fear the energy of money and open your hand?
 Why would one be afraid to come to “nothingness” and to the end of coercion?

Giving & Receiving

“For it is in giving that we receive.” St. Francis of Assisi

The idea that “there is no individual enlightenment, only a collective enlightenment” can be perceived in two motions: 1) when I wake up as an individual from the illusion of separation, stop judging, salute the divine in everything and witness the emergence of an aware society, 2) when we wake up as a collective, stop judging, salute the divine in everything and witness the emergence of an aware society. When the first is hard to conceive, the second is even more dubious. Story is told that, when the Buddha reached the heavenly gate, he chose to stay to assist the many souls struggling. Indeed, I have no ambition to be the first to enter, when I know that “you” are what’s left of “me,” and that your hunger is what’s left of mine. Now a bridge is needed, to open you and me to sentience, by which to hear the One! The bridge is emPowering NOW LLC. The stone that supports the bridge is XPR.

What are you resisting to feel to know that ALL is by GRace alone?

Empowering NOW's Mission

“I had to experience despair, I had to sink to the greatest mental depths, to thoughts of suicide, in order to experience grace.” Hermann Hesse, Siddhartha

The Mission of emPowering NOW LLC is to bring forth the Path of XPR as a way to transition from a world mainly in GReed where Giving/Receiving communicates by the way of fear, confusion and domination, to a world of GRace where my word flows freely from the silence and the sounds of LOVE. As for the Path of XPR, it offers a method of inquiry based on Sacred Geometry: each of the painted spheres refers to one of the XPR courses (see golden XPR for more details).

Do you see how the green sphere of Spirit over the core of the Nautilus shell? To feel it, you must include the SIX spheres color-coded as per the fractal of Ignorance.

Guilt & Release

“Guilt feelings are the preservers of time.” A Course In Miracles

Double-Dealing	Gold & God	Body & Doer	GReed & GRace	Gelt &amp; Guilt	Scared & Sacred	Cure & Poison
Precious	Geometry	Enlightenment	Give/Receive	Release	Song of LOVE	Twinhood

When I think that I am the body, I attach to the lie that I am white, black, slim, fat, male or female. Moreover, I see the body as valuable for what it offers. What has the body given me that I would make it the source of my salvation? At the most, I “try” to postpone death (hear, change) by indulging in pleasures that eventually turn to pain. Ultimately, I can’t forgive my errors, repeating them “over and over again, expecting different results.” I soon go into self-torture, using the thought that I did something wrong. I deserved to be punished and disciplined over by a higher Power that feels to me to be a tyrant. I can’t let go of misplaced Guilt. I can’t let go, as I live in the past. I judge the sacrificing my “son” as the epitome of cruelty. I just don’t get it, which leads me to cling some more to my possessions! Therein is the insinuation of GReed, which divides the world into two kinds of people: the dreamers who have a soul and no money, and the executives, who can pay the bills yet can’t afford to follow their bliss...

Does one feel the pangs of guilt when not focused on receiving for the little self alone?

Stairway to Heaven

The Anunnaki were aeronaut gods, taking themselves so lightly they could fly. As bird people, they were called to preside over Justice, and to make the choice of Truth. Justice is to know when enough is enough! Air sign Libra for “scales of Justice” is linked to birds and feathers. Ruling over Justice, Greek goddess Athena as well as Semitic goddess Lilith are called “Bird Goddesses” and have for insignia the owl, the wisest of birds. Egyptian goddess Maat, who sits over the Judgment of the Dead, has for attribute “the ostrich feathers of the twofold truth.”

Consider: Shame is a way of being, while Guilt is a way of doing: they both get me down! When I stop judging my “Fall,” I strip the Body of Shame to wear the Body of Light. I have wind beneath my wings.

Scared & Sacred

“The Fear of LOVE begins in Wisdom, and the Knowledge of the All-holy is Understanding.” Proverbs 9:10

Double-Dealing	Gold & God	Body & Doer	GReed & GRace	Gelt & Guilt	Scared & Sacred	Cure & Poison
Precious	Geometry	Enlightenment	Give/Receive	Release	Song of LOVE	Twinhood

When I live by grace alone, all is sacred, which implies that I am beyond the fear of sacrifice. How can I make something sacred (the meaning of sacrifice) when all is already sacred. Even GReed is sacred, as it will take me to GRace. Hebrew conveys that idea beautifully as word Yirah for “fear” has the same letters as Aryeh, the mountain “lion” that carries the medicine of leadership. It also has the same numerical value as word Gevurah for “Power.” Stepping into my Power as a Leader terrifies me, as it implies that I am willing to let go of everything – especially of the belief system that has me in bondage to gelt and guilt. Heaven cannot be sacrificed; only hell can! It is not as much a sacrifice as it is a release from a perception of the body that has kept me a slave. Therein is the source of the misconstrued idea of the fear of LOVE. When I sacrifice suffering, I see all as sacred, and am no longer scared.

Consider: the wisdom of the Bible does not come from the narratives, but from its minute essence, the Hebrew alphabet itself! Once decoded, the sacred signs reveal to be infused with the DNA of identities, a universal coding given to empty the self.

The Song of LOVE

“I have no fear of making changes, destroying the image, etc., because the painting has a life of its own.”

While painting Master Mammon (“Master Money”), I stained the area meant to stay white. Not a problem: I’ll just make the error really obvious! I’ll circle it, and have an arrow pointing to it! Now why cannot I know in life what I know in Art? Why do I need to contract each time I perceive I made an error? I clearly don’t hear Namasté as “no mistakes,” and thus fail to salute all beings and events as divine. I live in fear, rearranging “sacred” into “scared” by the thought that I must sacrifice my son, not realizing that my son is already sacred.

Consider: when I feel the shame that has me hide my transgressions, they become simple errors and can be adjusted. I am now at Peace, hearing the Song of LOVE.

Money Healing

“If you prick us, do we not bleed? if you tickle us, do we not laugh? if you poison us, do we not die? and if you wrong us, shall we not revenge?” William Shakespeare, The Merchant of Venice

Double-Dealing	Gold & God	Body & Doer	GReed & GRace	Gelt & Guilt	Scared & Sacred	Cure & Poison
Precious	Geometry	Enlightenment	Give/Receive	Release	Song of LOVE	Twinhood

Greed is not a financial issue. It is a trust issue that has my body split from my soul. That dis-ease has infiltrated the collective and thus lives in me: “if you wrong me, shall I not revenge?” When the substance of gold is worshipped and used as a substitute for “God,” it becomes a main target for my projections: “money should come easily to me.” Is that true? Should I find that, in reality, money does not come easily to me, I can go to the next level of inquiry and accept that it is Truth, and not money that “should” come easily to me. It has been said that money is the root of evil, that the love of it is the root of evil, and that lack of it is the root of evil. The thing is: as long as I separate matter from spirit, I will have money problems. That is the gift of Twinhood, to love my ambivalences with One heart. In that Hebrew is a full mathematical system, it is both the poison (who’s counting?) and the cure, as I begin to make time count. At last, the Shylock syndrome (and the projection of a Jewish agenda) can be healed.

Finish the sentences: money should [not] _____. I wish rich people would _____.
Own it by replacing “money” and “rich people” with “I.”

Cure & Twinhood

'No one can serve two masters. Either you will hate the one and love the other, or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both "God" and Mammon.' Matthew 6:24
 Hebrew word Mammon means 1. yearning, 2. money.

The Path of XPR is Precious.

For everything else, there is MasterMammon.

Is there anything that can fill the gaping hole of my soul,
 when I am divided in between two masters?

All characters appearing in this work of art are fictitious. Any resemblance to any real entities or persons, living or dead, is purely coincidental.

The Lost Symbol

“What consciousness does is the manipulation of information in the form of at least numbers, alphabet letters, and most generally symbols.” Dr. William Tiller, Some Science Adventures with Real Magic.

XPR is the transliteration of a Hebrew word that is the epitome of consciousness, as The Word means at once: “Perspective, Number, Sound, Letter, Name and Cipher 0/1.” Among all writings of humanity, the Hebrew Bible is the book that is recognized to have had the greatest influence over the collective mind. For that reason alone, the Torah can be felt as the recipient of the collective unconscious itself. There are many wisdom paths. XPR is uniquely adapted to modern “quantum” times, while being endowed with an ancient noble truth – that it is a path to lead the individual and the collective to the end of suffering. Since this statement is likely to evoke some level of resistance, let’s inquire:

- What if the experience of enlightenment was to go beyond resistance?
- What if demystifying the “God” label as the biggest projection there is came from going to the source – religion? Consider: this may just allow for a full integration of ALL identities, until only I Am is left, “for no one may see me and live.”

Consider: nothing is as powerful as an idea whose time has come!

The Word	Perspectives	Numbers	Sounds	Letters	Names	Cipher 0/1

Proclaimed & Fair

This Proclamation is made to thank the Jewish people for their unflinching courage in the face of the pain they had to endure to insure that the gift of the Holy Torah and of its Hebrew alphabet would remain uncompromised. This proclamation is also made to free Hebrew from the attachment that tends to link a language to a people, e.g.; Latin, as the property of the Romans. Being neutral, some languages, such as mathematics or music, are deemed to be comprehensive: no clan can make a claim as to their ownership. Optimally, any discipline serving a vast ecumenical endeavor belongs to no gender, no race, no nation, no tradition, no organization, but only to life itself. Yet, it is out of nothing that something is compelled to come into being... Why? At the root of the evolutionary tension is a divine plan orienting the collective towards love and the embodiment of wisdom. The path leading to such a destination is to be accessible to all and owned by none. Since heartfelt unity rests upon the transparency of no hidden or hiding agendas, the decoding of the Torah naturally positions Hebrew from being given to Judaism to being received by the whole (including by the Jews). The more XPR reveals the mathematical intention underlying the signs of the Torah as what is behind the aesthetic of order, the freer Hebrew is to resonate universally. Surprise, surprise: as the wondrous realization of oneness is increasingly felt from within, the collective soul is uplifted with a mystical knowing akin to discovering  $e=...$

Money & Manna

“To make a lot of money, you will have to decide to become somewhat abnormal.”
Stuart Wilde, The Trick To Money Is Having Some

Why would two people with equal backgrounds and opportunity differ so much in their earning capacity? The unspoken secret is to override the indoctrination of scarcity (thus becoming “abnormal”) by substituting pulling to pushing. The push – a more masculine trait – works some of the time. Yet it is labor intensive, painful and often counter-productive. Better to offer my sheer focus on excellence, raise my energy and my prices! In that game, patience is my greatest friend, as it allows me to avoid poor decisions. It also brings in the feminine dimension of wisdom: instead of exhausting myself, I just harvest the manna. Lastly, I must allow myself to demystify money and to lift the magical hold it has on me, by taking back the projections that I have on it. I can only be free, when money stops controlling me, and I, it. When I don’t care whether or not I get the deal (and it shows), the deal comes to me. Here is how I know beyond doubt that I live in the land of “Milk and Money:” I celebrate losses; I randomly pay for the fare of the next five people in line; I buy something frivolous and then give it away. Imagine... Each of us changing by throwing out the money changers!

The Health of Wealth is how-to move out of Scare City into Abundance!

Scarcity	No Influence	No Bandwidth	No Reprieve	No Periphery	No Thriving	No Enterprise
Abundance	Speed	Leverage	Fruitfulness	Guidance	Boundlessness	Choice Point

Jesus Saves!

Redemption—noun: 1. an act of redeeming or atoning for a fault or mistake, or the state of being redeemed. 2. deliverance; rescue. 3. Theology. deliverance from sin; salvation. 4. atonement for guilt. 5. repurchase, as of something sold. 6. paying off, as of a mortgage, bond, or note. 7. recovery by payment, as of something pledged.

Commerce	Buy/Sell	Lend/Borrow	Save/Spend	Earn/Steal	Find/Lose	Give/Take
Silence	Stillness	Non-Planning	Non-Reacting	Consecrating	Non-Initiating	Abundance

Here is a magnificent symbol of how healing the mind involves attending first and foremost my dis-eased relationship to money: the financial vocabulary, e.g.; savings, bonds, trust and most essentially “redemption” addresses two complimentary and antagonistic realities: matter and spirit. Since Latin word mater for “mother” extends into “matter,” it is not surprising that the feminine – in men as in women alike – would resist “having to” be a provider or “having to” pay the price. Yet, when I come into the knowledge that I am free (not for sale), I am no longer prey to the reptilian fears that have led me to lie, cheat and manipulate. I smile and keep Silence, as I know that I need do nothing, and have nothing left to lose – not even a pound of flesh.

Therefore, if money were not an issue,

- What would you do for a living?
- What would you do differently with food and/or eating?
- How would you interact with people? Would you feel more sexy?

The Sense of Enough

“Beyond Greed: turn your awareness in a positive direction towards the trust that whatever is given is absolutely right, and out of this trust, allow yourself to dance in gratitude.” Osho

The Sense of Enough is a process offered to who decides to travel with us: to insure that the Path of XPR shall always remain what it is – a most precious gift to humanity, emPowering NOW LLC invites me to clarify my Sense of Enough, that is, what the perfect exchange is for me to study Golden XPR. Going through the SIX steps of the Enough fractal and the SIX corresponding Objections, I am to consciously decide the nature of my own commitment to myself by placing my own value on what is enough for me to give, emotionally and financially, to receive what I want most of all – the embodiment of divine wisdom. Showing up to this process takes great courage, as it is only when I am real that my Sense of Enough communicates: until then, there will be the sense that something is not quite aligned, for me, for my advisor or for both. This meditation is thus a most significant step toward Self-Knowledge, one that will push my buttons, as it asks me to break the chain of fear that is tying me down, a FEAR solidified by the greed that has infiltrated the collective, and therefore also lives in me.

How do you feel now? What showed up for you?

Objection	The Push	No Time	No Authority	No Money	Not Now	Alternative
Enough	Beyond Greed	Agreement	Gut Feeling	Values	Goal Setting	Paradox

About the Author...

My name is Mahalene Louis. I was born in France, from African Jewish parents. Growing up, I soon realized that tradition was a taboo subject: the law was to be followed, not questioned! Moreover, I was told I owed complete obedience to men who had the Power, not women! They could touch the holy books, which women were too impure or hysterical to approach. I responded with the worst possible act of rebellion I could do: I married on a Shabbat a catholic baker, who was hired to make French breads and croissants in America and gladly became my passport to the New Land. When I arrived in the USA, I kissed the ground, convinced that I was done with Judaism. It was a bold move: at the time, I didn't speak any English, which was particularly tough as I was primarily a communicator at heart. I started painting, as a way to express myself: within a few years, my work was in public and private collections. Another shock! However grateful I was for being the vessel of a sacred gift, I somehow understood that, unless I got my act in order, none of this beauty would bless the world. Praying for guidance, I heard that the healing I sought would come from deriving a global cosmology from the psychological decoding of the Hebrew Torah. Eventually, this process could be used by anyone who sincerely desired to end their suffering and fulfill their potential. Needless to say, I resisted this mission with all my might. Yet, it was as if the information worked its way through me, in spite of me. Where I would object my utter lack of balance, I would be told that ups and downs were part of the job description: how else would I know that XPR worked? When I spoke of my not being a rabbi, I heard that this was the work of an artist – who could imagine no boundaries. Also, Kabbalah had been written by men, about men and for men: this work was about restoring the Sacred Feminine – in both men and women. Moreover, not only did Hebrew naturally flow in my veins, but also, I was trained as a linguist: this was my work!

The Path of XPR provides visibility and guidance to a scriptural rendering historically clouded in mystery, confusion and mis-information. Its unveiling is a gift to and from the cosmos, the result of which is to have the student become the teacher via a communication that is primary, i.e.; there is zero delay between the words I speak and what I emPower in the NOW. This information is radically relevant, deeply moving and a stunningly beautiful work of art and heart. MTW.
